SOUNDS OF SALVATION

Brought to the Festival stage by Churches Together in Monmouth, Sounds of Salvation are a high-octane, ten-piece, ska/rock/punk Christian worship band with a horn section that will blow your face off. Formed in 2005, they travel the length and breadth of the country worshipping God with a sound that has been likened to setting an elephant loose on a marching band.

MONMOUTH TOWN BAND

This year, Monmouth Band will be playing in Agincourt Square as the parade of Rolls Royces drives past. Formed in 1968, they are a non-contesting band, playing for their own, and everyone else's, enjoyment! They have two formal concerts a year to raise money for charity. Conductor Bob Toomer has recently received an award for 50 years of service to the Gloucestershire Brass Bands Association.
