MONMOUTH FESTIVAL

Friday 23rd July

Main Stage

8pm - 9pm

TOWN

Alternative

They are the songs being sung on the terraces, they are the songs you hear playing through phones on the bus, they are the songs you hear your brother learning on his first guitar. They are Town, and they are your new favourite band.

Town are a britwave band, bringing the influences of yesteryears Britpop together. They came together with a love for such bands as The Clash, The Who and The Undertones. Despite only being on the circuit for a year, Town have already played with such bands as Buzzcocks, Bad Manners, The Wonderstuff and Kids in Glass Houses.

Main Stage

9.30pm - 10.30pm
