MONMOUTH FESTIVAL

Friday 30th July

Main Stage

8pm - 9pm

THE LAST REPUBLIC

Contemporary

Winners of Virgin Media's 2009 Road To V competition, The Last Republic gain your attention with a driving dynamic sound and songs which are catchy and anthemic. The band have been gathering critical acclaim from all corners of the musical globe including Zane Lowe, Huw Stephens, NME & Kerrang! Their debut album, Parade, will be released in September 2010 - they will also be appearing at Wakestock and Beautiful Days Festivals over the summer. Visit www.thelastrepublic.co.uk for information & free downloads.

Main Stage

9.30pm - 10.30pm

THE AUTOMATIC

Contemporary

The Automatic exploded on the UK music scene in 2006 with chart hits such as 'Raoul', 'Recover' and of course 'Monster'. In 2008 they hit the charts again with the massive rock anthem 'Steve McQueen' taking from their second album 'This is a Fix'. Now with their critically acclaimed new album "Tear the Signs Down" and current single 'Cannot Be Saved' all over radio and the internet, the band are looking forward to making the Friday night of the Monmouth Festival a night to remember with a set of hits and new songs and maybe a few surprises?
