

Tonight's
Sponsor:

THE THREE HORSESHOES 01600 712802

Monday 26th July

MONMOUTH FESTIVAL

St Mary's Church

8pm

THE NARTH SINGERS

Choir

The Narth Singers are a community choir which, in nine years, has grown to around sixty members, mostly drawn from local villages but many also, from further afield. We just love singing and we hope it shows!

This summer's concert features music from the UK, Europe, Africa, Asia and America.

The Three Horseshoes

8pm - 9pm

STEVEN SPROAT

Guitarist

In a 35 year music history Steven has released 3 albums and performed at numerous famous venues including Ronnie Scotts in London with The Ukulele Orchestra. His songs have received airplay on BBC Radio 2 and his name has been linked with many celebrities including Harry Hill & Frank Skinner who have sought him out as a ukulele teacher. In 2010 Steven is endorsing a signature model ukulele for Manufacturer Anue-nue (Japan). His set tonight will also showcase his guitar based songs so expect a bit of pop, some ballads, jazz and some surprise numbers on ukulele!

9.30pm - 10.30pm

FOLKLAW

Folk

Welcome to the world of FolkLaw! A plethora of exhilarating music inspired by 10 years on the road in Europe and North America, that will get your feet tapping and your mind thinking.

FolkLaw's inspirational songs evoke a raw social commentary, accompanied by foot-tapping Irish and American fiddle and interwoven with wonderful distinctive vocal harmonies. In the words of one of the UK's top folk-clubs 'Simply magical!'