MONMOUTH FESTIVAL

Thursday 29th July

Main Stage

8pm - 9pm

THE RONALDOS

Skiffle

The Ronaldos are an established four piece acoustic band. Armed with a set full of popular tunes, they are playing to audiences across the country. Their sound is derived from the intellectual interaction of double bass and acoustic guitars. Introduce to this a mix of banjo, expensive harmonica, inexpensive keyboard and sound effects, and a regular gig is magically transformed into a fabulous musical experience. Cuban, Skiffle and Pop!

BUENA RISCA SOCIAL CLWB

Salsa/Latin

The resident house band at Cafe Jazz's Monthly Latin night 'Mi Casa es Su Casa', The Buena Risca Social Clwb are a true Latin outfit. Comprising 2 trumpets, trombone & sax, piano, bass, timbales, congas and bongos, they play in a traditional Cuban style with some of the hottest Latin Jazz tunes in town.

Not only will you be lifted by the sheer power of the brass, the rhythm section is just electrifying. From start to finish this wall of sound that is The Buena Risca Social Clwb will have you moving like you've never moved before!
