

Tonight's
Sponsor:

Travis Perkins

Tel: 01600 713029

Tuesday 27th July

MONMOUTH FESTIVAL

St Mary's Church

8pm

JASON STADDON

Classical Guitar

Jason Staddon graduated from the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama in 2009 under John Mills, Christopher Stell and Graham Devine. He also received the Stuart Cohen Guitar Prize for his achievements. He has now been accepted to study for a PgDip at the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama.

The Three Horseshoes

8pm - 9pm

OLIVIA PERRY

Singer/Songwriter

Olivia Perry is a fourteen year old singer-songwriter from Newport who has played many venues throughout South Wales. She loves performing and has done so at many gigs spanning a wide variety of musical genres.

Her musical style is contemporary acoustic with material that encompasses diverse subjects including local disasters, annoying people and the predictability of modern day life.

9.30pm - 10.30pm

BEN HUWS

Singer/Songwriter

Since first picking up the guitar and getting to grips with the rudiments of Rock'n'Roll Ben has been influenced by disparate styles of music with an emphasis on American roots. Think Van Morrison meets Tom Petty...

He is currently recording his first solo album, 'There On Time', due to be available later this year.