CHRIS JAGGER'S ATCHA!

Blues/Country

Chris Jagger will be appearing with his band Atcha! in a rare outing this side of the border. Live the band easily switch from Chris's well honed songs to a dancey mix with heavy Cajun and Zydeco influences as Charlie Hart moves from fiddle to accordion. The rhythm section of father and son Malcolm and Jim Mortimore is a tight unit with Jim playing double bass. Jim is also a fine guitarist and when he straps on his axe Charlie moves to double bass! A unique and strong band with Chris up front.
